Andrew Wu

General Manager and Board Member

Mr Andrew Wu is the General Manager of Dagong Europe. He is appointed as a Member of the Board of Directors in April 2017.

Andrew is a well-rounded financial services professional with a wealth of global management experiences and extended business networks across the continents. Andrew possesses extensive working experiences in retail, corporate and investment banking across Asia, Europe and Middle East, as well as in-depth knowledge of China's capital market. Prior to joining Dagong, he had a long career at HSBC: he was HSBC's Director of Financial Institutions Group based in Hong Kong, covering the international banks and securities clients for HSBC. Prior to that, he was based in Beijing as the global relationship banker for Chinese clients in the infrastructure sector, facilitating their outbound activities and the Belt and Road projects. Before Beijing, he led the establishment of HSBC's first China Desk in Dubai and was responsible for covering all Chinese multinationals in the Middle East and North Africa, with the additional responsibility of driving the region's RMB internationalisation. Before Dubai, he was a retail banker and manager in Jersey, responsible for HSBC's retail banking network in the Channel Islands and Isle of Man. He started his career with HSBC in Shanghai, as a relationship manager for banking clients in the retail and consumer brands sector.

Andrew holds a Master Degree from Warwick Business School, University of Warwick in the UK. He is bilingual in Chinese and English and speaks basic Arabic.
