DAGONG EUROPE CREDIT RATING

Georgy Kharlamov

Credit Officer

Dr. Georgy Kharlamov joined Dagong Europe as Credit Officer in June 2017 and is heading the Credit Policy Department. His responsibilities include, inter alia, review and validation of credit rating methodologies, development and supervision of internal procedures and policies, as well as ensuring compliance with all regulatory requirements.

Georgy joined Dagong Europe from Fitch Ratings, where he spent six years working in the structured finance and corporate finance departments. During his time in the structured finance team, he was involved in methodology development as well as rating securitization transactions in different ABS sectors, eg auto and consumer loans, residential mortgages and corporate credit. In the corporate finance team, he was focusing on rating corporates in the industrial manufacturing, capital goods and real estate sectors.

Georgy holds a PhD degree in quantitative finance from Goethe University Frankfurt where he also currently serves as lecturer and teaches a course in credit risk analysis. He is a Russian native speaker, fluent in English and German and has basic French skills.
